

RECALL:

A PANEL DISCUSSION
THE ISSUES • THE RULES • THE RISKS

Join us for a provocative and informative discussion of a vital local issue.

At least two groups are gathering the necessary signatures to recall Oakland Mayor Jean Quan. If they succeed, Oakland voters will face several important questions including:

- What are the rules for the City of Oakland?
- How would a recall election be carried out?
- Who would be the likely candidates in a race for mayor?
- How have recalls played out for other communities and states?

The Oakland Tribune, League of Women Voters of Oakland, The Maynard Institute for Journalism Education and Laney Tower invite you to an informational panel discussion exploring these and related issues. Our panel will include:

BARBARA PARKER
OAKLAND CITY ATTORNEY

MAX NEIMAN
SR. RESEARCH FELLOW, INSTITUTE FOR GOVERNMENTAL STUDIES, UC BERKELEY

EVELYN HSU
SR. DIRECTOR OF PROGRAMS, THE MAYNARD INSTITUTE FOR JOURNALISM EDUCATION

CECILY BURT
OAKLAND TRIBUNE INVESTIGATIVE REPORTER

COREY COOK
ASSOCIATE PROFESSOR, DEPT. OF POLITICS, UNIVERSITY OF SAN FRANCISCO

This event will be live streamed

www.insidebayarea.com

Moderating the panel will be
MARTIN G. REYNOLDS
SENIOR EDITOR, COMMUNITY ENGAGEMENT, BAY AREA NEWS GROUP

WEDNESDAY, JAN. 25, 2012 • 6-8 P.M.
NILE HALL, PRESERVATION PARK, 668 13TH ST., OAKLAND, CA
ADMISSION FREE • OPEN TO THE PUBLIC

Space is limited. Seating on a first come, first served basis. For more info: mreynolds@bayareanewsgroup.com

